The Bulldogs won their first game of the season, thanks in large part to an outstanding defensive effort. The team is young, but the Bulldogs look more experienced than last year. A young and hungry group, they want to prove themselves. They got their first win of the season, which was well-deserved, against Marion. The Bulldogs held the Red Dragons scoreless in the first half and held on the for a 34-28 victory. They have a lot of work to do, but they have a coach and a good quarterback. Some of the players are young, but the players have potential. The Bulldogs came out the gates strong, with standout performances by defensive lineman Lance Davis and linebacker Kaleb Horton. “Our defense is really starting to come together,” head coach Andy Bruns said. “We came out today and played some good defense against a good team. The kids played hard and did a good job, but we were sloppy on the sideline, so it doesn’t matter how good you are, you can’t play good if you don’t keep things together on the sideline. I think that’s the biggest thing we’ve been working on.” The Bulldogs come in second on the active list for the total number of scholarship athletes. With 20 players on the roster, the team can use all their help. The team went through drills and practice last
