It's a powder blue four-bedroom, four-and-a-half-bathroom, three-car garage construction that's not only totally understated, but has a chinoiserie Asian flair. I've already won over my spouse with the staircase's carved black and white zigzag pattern and our neighbor with the little koi pond and gardens. To top it off, the price tag is ridiculously low and located in the heart of the neighborhood. Wish I could afford to buy this house. In fact, I'd pay twice this amount for the real thing. Located on the north side of the city, I have never walked past this neighborhood. When I first heard the story about how this house was built, I imagined a massive pastel rendition of the Mickey Mouse Club. Little did I know this home was not only a powder blue beauty, but a bargain at a meager $6,000. The house looks great and for that price it's way more than I can afford. But I had to stop by and take a peek and check out what all the fuss was about. When I first pulled into the driveway, I couldn't believe how cozy it was inside. The garage was decorated to resemble an open

I'd like to know if this is a bad way of writing a simple loop. I think it is, but I'm not sure. For i = 1 To 15 For j = 1 To 9 If j = 5 Then GoTo NextIteration End If DoSomething(i, j) NextIteration: Next i A: Just use the Do While keyword: Do While j 5 DoSomething(i, j) Loop 相关的 链接地址: 4bc0debe42
