Demo Video: Apen CD Ripper: Me Down "Knock Me Down" is a pop song written by Robin Gibb and Gary Osborne. It was the second single to be released from Robin's second solo album, Robin Gibb in 1973. Background "Knock Me Down" was the second single to be released from Robin's second solo album, Robin Gibb in 1973, following the US/UK number-one hit single "Juliet", which was released in October 1972. It was first released in the UK on 1 March 1973, and then the following week in the US. The B-side, "The Sun Goes Down (It's Up To Me)", was written by Gary Osborne. "Knock Me Down" was played frequently on R&B stations, and became a popular R&B dance record in 1973. The record, however, was not a huge hit on the pop charts, peaking at number 26 on the Billboard Hot 100 in the US. In the UK, it became his highest-charting solo single on that chart, reaching number 10 in the United Kingdom. Chart performance Personnel Robin Gibb - vocals, bass Gary Osborne - guitar Paul Samwell-Smith - keyboards Wally Badarou - piano, keyboards Andy Newmark - drums Leon Chases, Dougie Thomson - drums Bill Shepherd - keyboards Cover versions The song was covered by Brian Poole, Sarah Brightman, Morcheeba, and Rufus Wainwright.
